The Jardins-de-Napierville RCM is pleased to offer a collective transportation service to meet your travel needs in the area. It encompasses the following municipalities:

- Saint-Bernard-de-Lacolle
- Hemmingford township
- Village of Hemmingford
- Saint-Patrice-de-Sherrington
- Sainte-Clotilde-de-Châteauguay
- Saint-Michel
- Saint-Rémi
- Saint-Édouard
- Saint-Jacques-le-Mineur
- Napierville
- Saint-Cyprien-de-Napierville

This service gives you access to public transport for your travel needs, be it for a medical appointment, leisure or other.

Collective transportation is offered by means of available seats on the Haut-Richelieu para-transit routes already in effect. It is vital that people be understanding of their fellow passengers.

When the pilot project comes to an end, the collective transportation service will be assessed, namely based on the level of use during the 16-month period, to determine if it should be continued.

Service begins: September 18, 2006

Cost: September-October 2006 – free
Starting in November 2006: $3.00/trip

Reservation: 24 hours in advance, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

The Centre local de développement (CLD) des Jardins-de-Napierville is overseeing the pilot project. You can reach the person in charge, Michel Charbonneau, at 450-245-7289 or 514-990-5586.

The Jardins-de-Napierville RCM wishes you a pleasant trip!
